

opinion it has today selected Mr. F. Gordon Bradley as Chairman, and asks the government to change the act accordingly."

Mr. Ashbourne I think it would be a good idea if the motion was put in writing. The motion as really voted on should be read by the Secretary before it is put so that there can be no doubt in the minds of those voting on it.

[A recess was called at this juncture so that a sub-committee consisting of the Acting Chairman, Mr. Higgins, Mr. Cashin, Mr. Smallwood and Mr. Ashbourne, could draft a motion]

Mr. Chairman Here is the motion, gentlemen:

Resolved that we advise the Commission of Government of our wish to be empowered to select our own Chairman, and that we have today selected Mr. F. Gordon Bradley, K.C., for that position, subject to the consent of the Commission of Government, and that we advise the Commission of Government of our wish that Mr. Bradley be appointed Chairman of the National Convention, and that we request the Commission of Government to amend the National Convention Act accordingly, and in such a way as not to deprive Mr. Bradley of his rights as an elected delegate to the National Convention.
