

of the Conservative party in these days. Now, Mr. Speaker, it is evident that hon. gentlemen opposite do not want to transact public business when one of them occupies two hours time talking about nothing. The opposition here were anxious to facilitate the despatch of business, but these gentlemen opposite seem to want delay and I therefore move that the House adjourn so that we may get out of this heated atmosphere.

Some hon. MEMBERS. Withdraw.

Mr. TAYLOR. I will withdraw if the supporters of the government keep quiet and allow business to be transacted.

Motion to adjourn the House (Mr. Taylor) withdrawn.

House divided on amendment (Mr. Scott).

Lalor,

Mr. J. E. LEONARD (Laval). (Translation). Moves:

1. That this Bill be not now read a third time but be recommitted to a Committee of the Whole House with an instruction that they have the power to amend it by adding the following as subsection 2 to section 2:—

2. Such right to separate schools and such educational privileges as are guaranteed to the Catholic or to the Protestant minority of the Northwest Territories, under chap. 50, of the Revised Statutes of Canada, shall be continued by this constitution to the minorities in the said provinces.

My object in moving this amendment is to have embodied in the Bill section 14 of the Revised Statutes, which reads as follows:

14. The Lieutenant Governor in Council shall pass all necessary ordinances in respect to education; but it shall therein always be provided, that a majority of the ratepayers of any district or portion of the Territories, or of any less portion or subdivision thereof, by whatever name the same is known, may establish such schools therein as they think fit, and make the necessary assessment and collection of rates therefor; and also that the minority of the ratepayers therein, whether Protestant or Roman Catholic, may establish separate schools therein, and in such case, the ratepayers establishing such Protestant or Roman Catholic separate schools shall be liable only to assessments of such rates as they impose upon themselves in respect thereof.

House divided on amendment (Mr. Léonard).
