Sections 48 to 50 inclusive agreed to.

Schedule agreed to.

Title agreed to.

The Deputy Chairman: Shall the bill carry?

Some hon. Members: On division.

The Deputy Chairman: Shall I report the bill?

Some hon. Members: On division.

Bill reported.

Mr. St. Laurent: Mr. Speaker, may I be allowed to table the statement of the information asked for by the hon. member for Rosetown-Biggar in respect of the declarations that have been made to us about tax concessions existing in Newfoundland; and may I have added to Hansard, so that it may be available to everyone, the table showing for the last nine years the income in Newfoundland that would be cancelled by virtue of union with Canada.

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Mr. St. Laurent: The table is as follows:

Fiscal year	Revenue from import and export duties, excise duties and excise licences, less refunds and repayments	Profits surrendered by Board of Liquor Control plus war emergency levy	Inland revenue stamps	Total Revenue collected and paid into exchequer under all heads of departments

Revenue from import and export duties, excise duties and excise licences and from inland revenue stamps will not accrue to the province of Newfoundland after union. Profits from the Board of Liquor Control will continue to accrue to the province.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Blackmore: What is the business for tomorrow?

Mr. St. Laurent: The business for tomorrow would be third reading of the bill which has just been dealt with in committee; after that, the resolution, which is on the order paper for today, for an address to His Majesty to place before the parliament of the United Kingdom a confirming statute; then the resolution dealing with the Agricultural Products Act, which is No. 4 on the order paper today; then continuation of the debate on the measure for the continuation of certain orders and regulations during the national emergency arising out of the war, which is No. 6 on today's order paper.

Mr. Knowles: In that order?

Mr. St. Laurent: Not necessarily in that order as to the last two items I have mentioned.

At eleven o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
