BENNETT'S LONG RESOLUTION.

Mr. R. B. Bennett moved a very long resolution. It pointed out that the speech from the throne set forth that the Dominion Government had not given any indications of its intentions in regard to the representations made to them on the inadequacy of the revenue of the Territories. The resolution went on to state that the liabilities incurred by the Legislature in 1899 and 1900 much exceeded the resources in each of those years; and that a similar state of affairs characterized 1901. The resolution concluded with expressing the opinion that the Government ought to have placed before the members of the Legislature the fullest information of the Territorial financial position before the prerogation of the Dominion Parliament; and deemed it inexpedient and unjust that the salaries of the executive should have been increased; and other expenditures incurred in view of impending constitutional changes, which it re-
