interprise that faithbeen is the proposition of the control of the

While our present relation to the Imperial Government subHon: Col. SECRETARY presented to the Magnetic Government subHon: Col. SECRETARY presented to the Magnetic Government subHone Col. SECRETARY presented to the Magnetic Government subHone Col. SECRETARY presented to the Compilies of Palacian and Cape Revious Previous to 1772, Ireland Accounts (5) 1858—referred to the Compilies on Palacian Accounts (6) 1858—referred to the Compilies of Palacian Accounts (6) 1858—r side, any union would place us in a position similar to that large a recovering to the process of sealand and Cape Broken. Personally to 1772, Ireland Account of the process of the proce people of this Island, staves to Sir Samuel Conard and others time to morrow-heir friends, as was the case last year. As to the exemption of the Island from the Railway debts of the Sister Colonies, in common fairness, it should be borne in mind that the ishand derives great benefits from them, and that it is not surréasonable that an honest acknowledgment of that fact! -bould be made.

The question was then put on Mr. Howian's amendment, which was lost, and the original resolution carried. When the Huggs resumed, and the Speaker put the question on the main resolution, Mr Howlan again moved his amendment, and the House divided as follows

For the amendment .- Messrs, Howlan, Sutherland, Sinclair,

of the proprietors, are told that they have the right of self- it is to the proprietors, are told that they have the right of self- if the Mr. LUNGWORTH, laving chitained laws, included any hon, member, it was the consury that our legists. Ellis to smed the Act to incorporate the Union Bank at Clinica in the self- write the Land Question without the Edward Listod. He explained that the Bill was framed in the resolution produces with suggestions contained in a departs of this Grace would not be so objectionable, to my mind, if it embedded and the Dake of Newcards.

would not be so objectionable, to my maint, it is emooutes as a repression of opinion for or against the union: but the Ger-Q. Do metion of those Col. Gray, the consideration of the Descriment, I believe, are disposed to amuse the people and patches on the table was under the order for the day for There-provide, at the public expense, a pleasure tips for some of [68], Alorb Bin. Adoptioned all to-ments provide, at the public expense, a pleasure tips for some of [68], Alorb Bin. Adoptioned all to-ments are the provided as the public expense, a pleasure tips for some of [68], Alorb Bin. Adoptioned all to-ments are the provided as the public expense, a pleasure tips for some of [68].