Hon Mr. WHELAN : That is not fair.

Mer HOWIAN of this quite fair; I have listened to tively, and I perceive that his views have undergone a change since last year. It is more gratifying to know that he has empeth error of his ways. The advocates of Union desire something more this manulaber we would get by the Geolog Soheme. How appears that a charge has, taken place, and no basis is laid, down with reget do the financial part of the Saheme, what mould our position, or what would gue influence bo? Lunight, reter to although lalend, but, that han, old, story now. It, would be said, "Who are son that attempt to raise your bead? . A listle isolated place that attempt to reaso your head 7.
