Legalider the Cateropheat, would have stood better with the people had his appointment not been made. When I previously addressed you, Mr Chairman, I stated my intention to submit a resolution expressing regest that the Government had het declared its policy on the question of Confederation. Though I have shandoned the idea of proposing a motion to that effect, yet I must state, that as this subject is one of the most momentons which has evar some before the consuleration of the Hestelliare. I think the Government ought to have given some discilled expression of opinion upon it. Y believe there 'is summission' information perore the public to have warranted such and expression of opinion. Even some of the speeches given in Canada, we are told, are not to be understood in thee seast, which we would take to be their natural meaning, I will vote for the amendment; but in so doing I displain any personal objections to the hon gentleman to whom it refers. I have, on the contrary, a very high respect for him. The hon member for blurray Harbor has stated that he will support the paragraph, and not the amendment. I have heard him express strong sentiments on the question of Union-string that the man who supported the scheme must be almost witnestic. If he is not sorry that a person of this description should be appointed to a coat in the Government, then I have nothing more to say (Loughter )
